High School Leadership Track (9th-12th grade, 2021-2022)

Summer Festival Camp Offers You

- Relevant and engaging discussions about faith and life
- High-energy inspiring worship,
- Creative, immersive activities that will challenge you in fun and faith,
- Friends. Food. And So MUCH FUN!
- What more could you want in a summer camp?

Keynote speakers come to share inspiring and challenging stories about real life, God, and where the two intertwine. The days are packed with fun surprises of all kinds. From the music, the movies, the games, the speakers, and club – all with laughter to tears – Summer Festival Camp really has something for everybody. Find additional information and a promo clip at www.firstenglishchurch.com/youth.html

What kind of programming will the campers experience?

Summer Festival combines games, skits, worship music, speakers, breakout sessions and small group discussion time for a unique experience that draws students closer to God, each other, and the leadership from their churches. See the daily schedule online for more information.

When is Summer Festival Camp?

We check in between 1:30 and 2:30 p.m. on Sunday and check out between 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 Sunday, July 17 through Wednesday, July 20.

What does it cost? - $70 for FELC Youth -updated 1/2/2022

First English youth will pay $70. The full fee is estimated to be $270/person. FELCY youth funds pay $200 for FELC members.
